The Scoop of Sylvania

Welcome to Scoop of Sylvania—ice cream edition. The weather is beautiful and ice cream is becoming a large part of us teenagers' social lives. Pick a day where the sun is shining and you could care less about calorie count and hit up one of the many ice cream shops we have here in this lovely city full of adventure and FUN. The following are in order of my favorites. Southview's hot-spot? None other than MR. FREEZE! Seriously, the whole student body lives at Freeze, so make sure you look normal when grabbing a treat because you WILL see someone you know. Anyways, they have super yummy ice cream—but y'all already know that. Order yourself a nice large sundae next time you go, CAUSE

YOU ARE WORTH IT! ;) Mayberry—a little on the north side of Sylvania, but the ice cream is quality. I prefer the look of Mayberry Square for ice cream eating—it includes nice benches and plenty of space to wander and snack without getting hit by a car. Socializing is supreme at this location—and the ice cream is too! Handel's...although I do not get out to this parlor too often, I will tell you the ice cream is superb. Their creative flavors are refreshingly different than your typical vanilla and chocolate cones. Also, they make a mean chocolate covered banana, if you are into the fruity treats. Charlie's is a classic. Close to our home away from home (aka SVHS) and also some unique flavors. Plus they make real food which means you can grab ice cream and a meal (well...if french fries is considered lunch). All right, a solid four ice cream parlors for you all to check out. Possibly the best places in the SYL as well. Pace yourself—you don't want to hit all of these shops in one night. Oh and you make the choice of which is your favorite, they each have something different to bring to the table--or in this case THE COUNTER (get it?). I SCREAM, YOU SCREAM, WE ALL SCREAM FOR ICE CREAM (during these beautiful sunshiney days!). BYE SV!
